Professional Summary

Dr. Epstein, attorney at law, provides legal services with an emphasis on personal injury and civil litigation. Over the course of several decades, as a practicing chiropractor, Dr. Epstein focused on treating injury victims who experienced all types of accidents, including car accidents, dog bites, and slip and falls. He was appointed by the state of California to examine employees injured on the job and to determine if any disability was present. Now, as an attorney, Dr. Epstein uses this experience for the benefit of his clients and is able to achieve large monetary settlements.

As an attorney, Dr. Epstein will take charge of your case to make sure you receive the care you need. Because of Dr. Epstein's unique experience in the field of injury, he is able to manage your case so that you will obtain the best results possible. Dr. Epstein has negotiated six-figure settlements for his injured clients. He has the experience and skill to represent you against insurance companies who will minimize your injuries and refuse to compensate you fairly for injuries that were not your fault.

From his experience, Dr. Epstein has obtained excellent settlements on very difficult cases, such as those with minimal property damage to a client's vehicle. And, because of our confidence in settling personal injury cases, we accept these cases on a contingency fee basis. This means that if we don't win the case, you pay nothing. In the event that a satisfactory offer to settle from an insurance company is not forthcoming, and a lawsuit must be filed, in most cases the firm will advance the cost of litigating your case.

Dr. Epstein also has experience in handling a wide variety of civil matters. This includes contract disputes, insurance disputes, and collections matters. Because of Dr. Epstein's strong negotiation skills, which earned him awards in law school, he has been able to obtain favorable results in these matters, despite challenging circumstances.
